

Open Industry Session

Trillium Room, Holiday Inn, Guelph, Ontario

Wednesday, April 13, 2016

A G E N D A

8:45 a.m.	Coffee
9:00 a.m.	Welcome	Art Pruim, GEB Chairman
	Hoof Health	Progress Report on the Hoof Health Project – Francesca Malchiodi, University of Guelph, and Filippo Miglior
	Female Fertility	Scope for the Use of Pregnancy Confirmation Data in Genetic Evaluation for Reproductive Performance – Janusz Jamrozik Updated Genetic Parameters for Holstein Reproductive Traits Using More Recent Data – Janusz Jamrozik Implementation of Improvements for Female Fertility Traits and Daughter Fertility – Gerrit Kistemaker
12:00 p.m.	Lunch
	Genomics	Reducing Variation of Published Evaluations for Genomic Young Bulls Used in both United States and Canada – Pete Sullivan Annual Update of Genomic Validation Results and Introduction of Genomics for the Guernsey Breed – Gerrit Kistemaker Value of Genomics for Selection Against Crampiness in Holsteins – Brian Van Doormaal Analysis of R-Values for Genomic Young Bulls Depending on Female Reference Population – Brian Van Doormaal
	New Traits	Overview of Research and Opportunity of Selection for Milk Fatty Acids – Allison Fleming, University of Guelph (Report 1 and Report 2) Vision of Genetic Evaluation Services for New Traits – Brian Van Doormaal
4:30 p.m.	Closure	