

Open Industry Session
 Hôtel des Seigneurs, St. Hyacinthe, Québec
 Tuesday, March 20, 2012

A G E N D A

8:45 a.m.	Coffee
9:00 a.m.	Welcome	Filippo Miglior – GEB Chairman
	Immune Response	A Genome-Wide Association Study for Immune Response Traits in Canadian Holsteins – Kathleen Thompson-Crispi
	Genomics: Part I	Trend in Sire Usage with Genomics – Bethany Muir Variability in Genomic Breeding Values with 6K versus 50K Genotyping – Jarmila Johnston Imputation Accuracy from Low to High Density Panels Using Within and Across Breed Reference Populations in Holstein, Guernsey and Ayrshire Cattle – Steve Larmer Genomic Validation in Holstein, Jersey, Brown Swiss and Ayrshire – Gerrit Kistemaker
12:00 p.m.	Lunch
1:00 p.m.	Genomics: Part II	Analysis of Holstein Genomic Evaluations as Predictors of Official Progeny Proofs – Brian Van Doormaal Preliminary Concepts for a Revised CDN Fee Structure Commencing April 2013 – Brian Van Doormaal
	National Evaluations	Heritability Estimates for Body Condition Score, Thurl Placement and Locomotion – Gerrit Kistemaker Genetic Evaluation of Body Condition Score – Filippo Miglior Genetic Evaluation of Mastitis Resistance in Canadian Holsteins – Filippo Miglior
	Open Discussion	Brian Van Doormaal
4:30 p.m.	Closure	Filippo Miglior, GEB Chairman