

Open Industry Session
Salle Royal 3, Le Dauphin Hotel & Suites
Drummondville, Québec
Wednesday, October 25, 2017

A G E N D A

8:45 a.m.	Coffee
9:00 a.m.	Welcome	Greg Dietrich, GEB Chairman
	Industry Extension	Overview of Recent Articles from CDN – Brian Van Doormaal
	New Services	Genomic Evaluation for Resistance to Digital Dermatitis in Canadian Holsteins (Technical Report and Extension Article) – Janusz Jamrozik Estimating the Impact of AH1 and AH2 on Reproductive Performance in Canadian Ayrshires (Extension Article) – Filippo Miglior Introducing MACE Evaluations for Milking Shorthorns – Gerrit Kistemaker
	Research Updates	Examining Genomic Inbreeding and Homozygosity in North American Holsteins – Christine Baes Opportunities for Reducing the Incidence of Johne's Disease Using Genomics (Technical Report) – Nathalie Bissonnette
12:00 p.m.	Lunch
	Genomic Evaluation Accuracy	Exploratory Analysis of Pre-Selection Intensity with Genomics – Brian Van Doormaal Accounting for Genomic Pre-Selection in Canadian Genetic Evaluations – Pete Sullivan Improving Genomic Validation Results – Gerrit Kistemaker
	Industry Discussion	Should Somatic Cell Score Evaluations be Expressed as Relative Breeding Values? – Brian Van Doormaal
4:30 p.m.	Closure	